

Greek Dance Seminar

Dances of Crete

with

Giannys Megalakis

24th – 25th November 2007 in Zürich

Giannys Megalakis is one of the outstanding dancers of the younger Cretan generation with a deep love of the traditions and dances of his home. Out of the fruits of his research, he will teach us also some older, almost forgotten traditional dances of the towns and villages of Crete.

Giannys will bring with him a young musician who plays the Cretan lyre, who will accompany our dancing during the seminar and also on Saturday evening.

Where ?

Schule für Gehör und Sprache, Frohalpstrasse 78, 8038 Zürich-Wollishofen. Tram No. 7 or Bus No. 33 to Morgenthal, then Bus no. 70 to Verenastrasse - the school is diagonally across from the bus stop.

When?

Saturday, 24th November 2007: 12.00 - 15.30, Group I
16.00 - 19.30, Group II
Sunday, 25th November 2007: 11.00 – 13.30 Group II
14.00 – 16.30 Group I

Group I – easier dances at a slower pace – for all those who love to dance but have not yet had much experience of the special Cretan style.

Group II - repetition in depth and more-demanding dances – this group is suitable only for those who have several years of experience in Greek (especially Cretan) dance. We shall concentrate particularly on difficulties of style and rhythm.

Saturday evening : 8 pm Buffet supper (please bring a contribution – bread, wine, cheese, salad etc); afterwards music and dance.

Costs :

CHF 95.-- (or EUR 60.--) per group, incl. mineral water during the seminar and incl. Saturday evening.
CHF 25.-- (or EUR 15.--) for Saturday evening only

Insurance : responsibility of participants
